Rory's Race Report

Erzberg and Romaniacs

Hi all

You may not be aware, but I'm hoping to go back to Austria in June to compete in the Erzberg Extreme Rodeo Enduro. Last year I came 6th out of 500 riders, on my first attempt and this year I hope to do better, building on my success of the Tough One, where I came 4th last month.

And if it's possible, then to go on and have a go at the Red Bull Romaniacs at the end of June, and the two WEC rounds in Poland and Slovakia.

This would be a great opportunity to cram as much riding as possible into a month.

Yamaha will kindly provide a bike, but that doesn't get me there or enable to compete.

I have paid my entry fee for Erzberg, but still have to come up with money for the Romaniacs. The entry fee alone is NZ$3000 ... serious money.

The whole exercise is going to cost about $15,000, which includes airfares, entry fees, insurance, accommodation and running the bike. Some of the British Riders I made contact with at the Tough One are happy for me to tag along with them, in order to save money.

But ... I need your help.

If you are able, or know of anybody that can help get to these events I would be extremely grateful. I can offer advertising on the bike and my clothing. And I'm sure you will get great exposure. I have attached page one of the April edition from Australian Dirt Bike magazine which is current now. It's a great read and an excellent article.

Whilst my Uncle and Dad have funded most of my riding up to now, it's starting to get to expensive and they need help in sharing the burden. So any contribution, no matter how small would be extremely helpful.

This is great opportunity to help a Kiwi get to the top of his sport.

Cheers Rory

P.S. It would be great if you could acknowledge this e-mail, even if it's with kind wishes.
